Sage for Wisdom Aday you embrace mistakes as wisdom in the continuous learning at the heart of this profession, and may you find colleagues who share your curiosity and wonder and want to keep learning by your side.

their lives. the rest of will apply tor your students nsetul skills that build exbeliences Jearning create Mould as you ant offi fud the good you aug swall of maks jarge reminded in Usefulness Way you be

Chives tor

With deep appreciation for all you do,

For centuries people have attributed symbolic meaning to plants and flowers. This little zine offers a bouquet of herbs whose meanings represent six things we wish for you as you head into these final weeks of the school year.

May you be compelled by the courage of your convictions to stand up for what you and your students need to thrive. And may you find a chorus of allies who will join you in your advocacy.

Lavender for Love

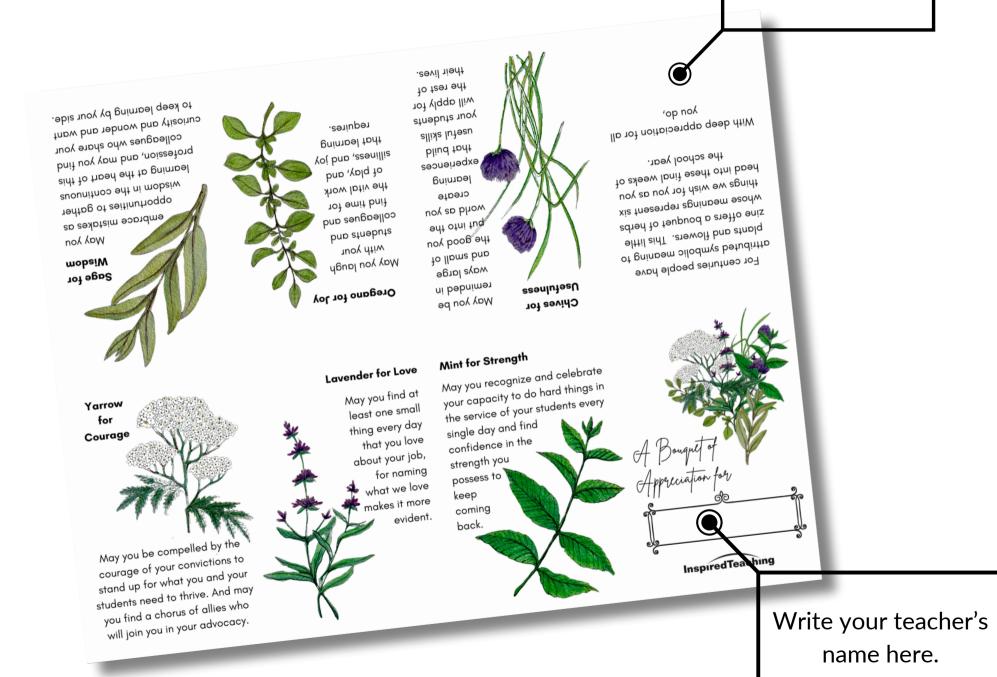

May you find at least one small thing every day that you love about your job, for naming what we love makes it more evident.

Mint for Strength

May you recognize and celebrate your capacity to do hard things in the service of your students every single day and find confidence in the strength you possess to keep coming back.

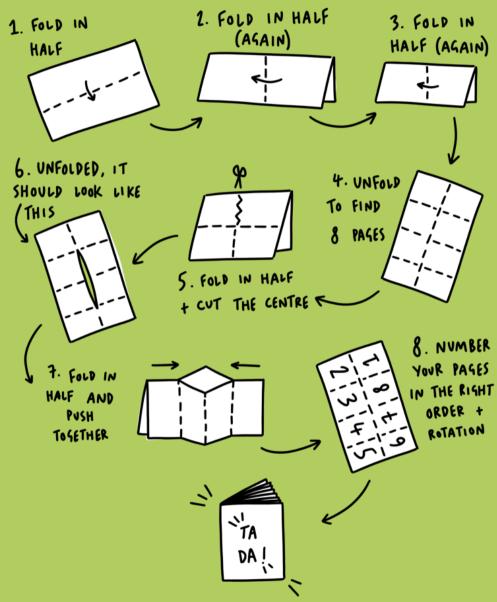

Write your name here.

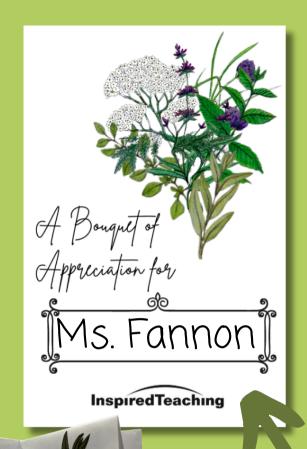

Herb illustrations: Jenna Fournel

HOW TO MAKE A ZINE

Folding instructions illustration: Daisy Wakefield https://www.42ndstreet.org.uk/support/read/how-to-make-your-own-zine/

Final folded size!